ABOUT US

Kenton Ross Funerals was established in 1987 by Kenton Poole, who brought with him many years of experience from his work in the funeral industry in Mount Isa.

Our now Brisbane-based company is built on his hard work and dedication to the families that entrusted their loved-ones to him. Kenton understood that each funeral belonged to the family and, as such, was able to offer families a uniquely personalised funeral service, tailored to their needs and wishes.

Following his passing in July 2008, Kenton's funeral home has continued to service the families of Kallangur and North-Brisbane under the ownership and operation of his son Jason. Jason and his family strive to continue his legacy and share in the same principles and ethos that has always made Kenton Ross Funerals 'a caring funeral service'.

"We believe in being sensitive to our clients' needs, remembering that the funeral belongs to the family. As such, we aim to provide the most personal and appropriate funeral for each individual that comes into our care, encouraging families to contribute to their loved-ones' service through spoken word, song, photographic tribute or whatever they deem appropriate. The funeral service can then become a true reflection of their lost loved-one's life and truly honours the person that has meant so much to them."

Jason Poole - Owner/Managing Director

CREMATIONS

Over the years, cremation services have increased in popularity across Australia as they are a very affordable alternative to a burial and offer a variety of memorialisation options. After a cremation has taken place, some families choose to scatter their loved-one's ashes in a place special to them, whilst others choose to have the ashes decanted into an urn that will be kept close to them indefinitely. Choosing an appropriate way to memorialise your loved-one is a decision that can take time. That is why Kenton Ross Funeral offers to care for your loved-one's cremated remains until a decision has been made.

We have put together the following cremation options to assist families in understanding the many choices available at Kenton Ross Funerals. Each individual service includes everything necessary for a cremation to take place in the state of Queensland. By choosing one of these options, you can be certain of the package inclusions and the set price. We hope this will be a helpful guide when making a decision that best suits your needs, circumstances and the wishes of your loved-one.

Our staff are also able to customise these packages, with options to upgrade or change items if desired. However, pricing may therefore vary. These options can be discussed with your caring funeral director to ensure we make your loved-one's send off unique and special for all.

BURIALS

A burial service can take place in a few different ways. You may choose to begin the service at the cemetery chapel or a local church and then proceed to the graveside, inviting the entire congregation to attend, or perhaps only having family and close friends at the committal. Alternatively, families may choose to have the full service at the graveside with rows of chairs set up across the lawn and portable sound equipment being used to amplify voice and song.

We like to be as flexible as possible when it comes to planning services across multiple sites, so if you have an idea on how you would like the day to run, talk to your funeral director and we'll make it happen. Your funeral director/s will be present on the day to support you, your family and friends as your loved-one is laid to rest.

By choosing one of our burial options, you can be certain of the package inclusions and the set price. We hope this will be a helpful guide when making a decision that best suits your needs, circumstances and the wishes of your loved-one. Our staff are also able to customise these packages, with options to upgrade or change items if desired. However, pricing may therefore vary.

It is important to be aware that certain cemeteries may have particular requirements before they will allow a burial on their grounds. Specific requirements are typically set by small country-town cemeteries that reserve their land for people with family and/or historical ties to their township. Also, each individual cemetery has their own burial/internment fee structures. As such, the prices noted in our packages over leaf do not include those fees. Your funeral director will be able to advise the relevant fee based on your choice of cemetery.

PROMOTING PROFESSIONAL
FUNERAL STANDARDS
FOR OVER 80 YEARS.

WHY CHOOSE AN AFDA MEMBER?

Australian Funeral Directors Association (AFDA) Members and the AFDA Trademark represents security, care and professional service. Formed in 1935, the AFDA is the only national funeral service organisation with member firms in every state and territory. We, along with other AFDA member firms, are chosen by the majority of families to provide funeral arrangements for their loved-ones. We are bound by a strict code of ethics and code of conduct designed to meet both community needs and expectations in all aspects of service delivery. The code is a reassurance to the community of sincere care and professional service, particularly at a time of uncertainty and distress for grieving family and relatives.

Prospective member firms must comply with required standards for premises, equipment and vehicles (PEV) before AFDA membership is granted.

The AFDA develops and promotes professional standards in the funeral industry. In conjunction with its membership, community groups and professional expertise, the AFDA has developed several standards for industry practice. These are based upon fundamental and legitimate occupational health and safety, public health, legal and community standards. AFDA member firms are required to abide by these standards.

The AFDA is widely recognised as the authoritative voice on all funeral matters in Australia. For your own peace of mind, select a funeral director who is an accredited member of the AFDA.

Prepaid Funeral Plan

A Prepaid Funeral Plan is a written contract between you and your funeral director. It details the funeral service of your choice and you pay for it at today's prices.

When considering a fixed price funeral plan the main points to remember are:

- You decide on the funeral service that you want
- You receive a written contract documenting your wishes
- You pay for it at today's prices – you know exactly what your financial commitment is and there is no more to pay
- You answer all the funeral questions now, many of which your loved-ones may struggle with in the future
- You protect your loved-ones from both financial and emotional stress
- Your investment is not deemed an asset so it can help maximise your pension entitlements
- You are not limited in the amount you invest
- Your investment is held at arm's length from the funeral director
- Should your funeral director cease to operate for any reason, your investment will be maintained by Foresters in the Funeral Benefit Fund. These funds can only be released by Foresters on your passing.

COMPLETING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR DEATH REGISTRATION

At the time of passing, those left behind to arrange the funeral are responsible for providing us with the deceased's personal information. This information is necessary for the registration of death with Births, Deaths and Marriages (BDM) in order to receive the official death certificate.

At Kenton Ross Funerals, we will complete all the necessary requirements to register the death and also apply for the death certificate on your behalf. This registration and application process will occur after the cremation or burial service has been held. It may take BDM 10-15 working days to process the paperwork and for the official death certificate to be issued by mail to the applicant.

The personal information form over leaf may be completed ahead of time. By lodging it with us, you can save your family the burden of sourcing this information themselves from old records and certificates etc. When the time comes, we will simply check the information with your family to ensure that nothing has changed in the time leading up to your passing.

As well as lodging your information with our funeral home, members of our team are also available via phone or appointment to talk with you and your family about how you can take the next step in the process: pre-arranging and planning your funeral needs and pre-paying for your funeral at today's costs.

We use Foresters Financial; a separate company who hold all pre-paid funds independently and issue a Members Policy Certificate to payees for their funeral costs. If you would like further information, please feel free to call us on (07) 3285 5155 or send an email enquiry to admin@krfunerals.com.au and one of our caring staff members will guide you through this process.

Don't forget that the funeral belongs to you and your family. Don't feel as though you're bound by what you see on this page. In the past, we have opened funeral services with the audio from the Melbourne Cup, printed secret hand-written cookie recipes into the orders of service, parked a motorcycle next to the coffin inside the chapel, invited family and friends forward to write thoughts and prayers on the coffin and much more. The more information you give us, the more we can help you and your family make this farewell a unique one that will be remembered with fondness and love for years to come.

You can shed tears that they are gone
Or you can smile because they lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that they will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all they have left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see them
Or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember them and only that they are gone
Or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what they'd want
– smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
